Self-development

The leader as a coach

Coaching skills are key for leading: you will foster growth and ownership in the adults you lead.

To lead people well requires coaching skills more than ever before.

In times of artificial intelligence, work becomes more focused on real human skills.

Coaching can be done as part of the job as well as besides the job.

The professional coach

For working with individuals, teams or organizations you always need to know the source code of human behavior and how to alter this positively, which you learn in your coach training.

Many start their second career as a coach only years after their training. Your previous experience supports your USP and your market entry.

Personal development

To truly help others see their biases and inner belief sets, we need to be aware of our own values and belief sets.

Barriers to supporting others will become visible and can be worked on during the course, supported by our hand-picked external partners.

Why become a coach?

State of the art coaching training

Education by multiple master coaches

World class education is guaranteed through learning from four senior executive coaches (PCC accredited).

You will learn from two ends: one of your trainers is a Gestalt Therapist while the other has a strong business background.

Condensed set-up of workshop content

Only three intense, on location workshops of four days each (Thursday-Sunday) - the rest of the program is self-organized and virtual.

The set-up makes it possible to participate in the program besides full-time, demanding jobs.

Full Level 2 accredited program by ICF

Fast track to ICF credentialing with the full Level 2, 125 hours program: Exam at PCC level long before the 500 hours of experience that it usually takes to get to that skill-level. International Coach Federation (ICF) as biggest global certification institute.

Work in a modern way

Coaching over video call is trained as one of the most common channels for coaching nowadays.

An online learning community is created.

Practice coaching in English (and your mother tongue).

Learn with great peers

International executives are your peers: you learn to coach with your future target group. You will be surrounded by ambitious learners and enjoy an environment of high learning intensity.

Personal development

The 8-month period gives participants time for their own personal development and allows them time to master all the learned skills.

90% pass the exam at PCC level: practice and self development counts.

Your journey to become a coach

Becoming a coach entails much more than learning professional coaching techniques. It requires the careful study and application of the techniques. Over time you to develop a true coaching mindset – one of deep respect for each and every coachee.

This non-judgmental attitude opens yourself up to inner freedom.

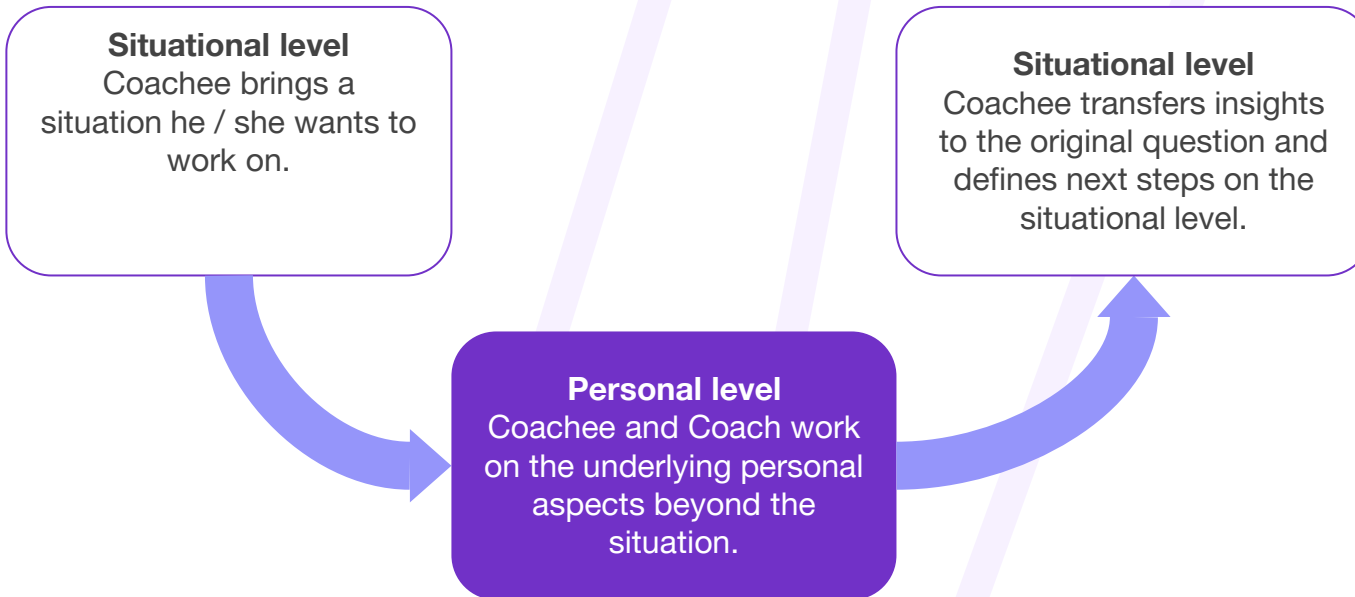

Most of our alumni say that the program has had a truly transformational effect on them personally and professionally.

Our philosophy - true development of the individual

Our coaching approach lifts the situational issue to the personal level. We drive a true personal development that enables the coachee to master the current situation and to learn about themselves as a person.

By doing so, the coachee is prepared for new challenges. This approach requires a true interest in the person you are coaching and an extended understanding of inner dynamics.

Practice is key - we support you getting started

A key part of our course is gaining experience from real coaching relations. Finding coaching clients might be challenging in the beginning – we support you getting started!

Through our close cooperation with several high-profile partners and pro-bono initiatives, we support you in getting interesting coaches to work with, so you can collect your coaching hours while also supporting great causes.
