How 40 CCEUs are helping with the re-credentialing

As part of a self-regulating industry, ICF requires its credentialed coaches to continuously improve their professional skills and knowledge in order to provide the best value to their clients. All ICF Credentials are valid for three (3) years. In order to renew a credential, an individual must participate in continuing professional development activities. At all levels, 40 Continuing Coach Education (CCE) units must be earned during each renewal cycle.

- ACC – 40 CCEs, of which 24 are in Core Competencies (of which 3 are in Ethics and 10 through receiving Mentor Coaching), the remaining 16 may be in Core or Resource Development
- PCC/MCC – 40 CCEs, of which 24 are in Core Competencies (of which 3 are in Ethics), the remaining 16 may be in Core or Resource Development
